VOTES MORAN TRAINING

White Sulphur Springs, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Frank Moran, the bionde-haired pittsburgh heavy-weight, who will fight Jess Willard for the world's championship in New York on March S, and who is doing his preliminary training here, took out a hunter's license on Friday, and the first prey to fall victim to Frank's gun was a large red fox, which Frank shot Saturday morning.

Moran is doing some strenuous training here. He is up at the stroke of 8 every morning, and he and his trainer. Willie Lewis, of New York, hit the roads the first thing. Moran is wome of the other days were almost as one of the other days were almost as the first thing. Moran is more of the biolatory of the preatest jockey of all time. "I haven't haven't heavy two years and I haven't made a bet in that time. The old fever is out of my velus-fors on March 4.
